1. Numerous Yugoslav agents in Albania are distributing propaganda leaflets which compare unfavorably the terrorism of the Hoxha regime with the "ideal conditions" of a Tito regime. These men, who are well paid themselves, pay highly for information received locally.

- 25X1X 2. [REDACTED] the principal task of these Yugoslav agents is that of discovering the number and strength of any foreign clandestine missions inside Albania, as well as the identity of the sponsors of such missions, the types of propaganda which they issue, and their views regarding the immediate future of Albania. Yugoslav agents are also attempting to identify Albanian Nationalist leaders, and to determine the exact strength of the resistance potential; [REDACTED] reports that they are inviting Albanian families and individuals to take refuge in Yugoslavia.
